(BULLETIN)

Paris, Nov. 1.—Two American aviators have been killed near Nancy, according to a dispatch received here from that city. The dispatch gave no further details.

The Matin says that the aeroplane contained two Americans while flying over Bodonville Plateau near Nancy. The observer and the pilot who came down with the machine were crushed to death under the engine.

Five Americans Go Down With Marina.

London, Nov. 1.—A telegram to the American embassy today from Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, named the following Americans as lost in the Marina disaster: Joseph Thomas, Wilmington, Delaware; J. C. Rown, Roanoke, Va.;—Blowm, Charlottesville, N. C.; Geo. E. Sturby, Fayetteville, N. C.;—House, Northfolk, Va.

Consul Frost has a joint affidavit from the Americans who reached Crook Haven and similar documents from American survivors at Queen Haven. The affidavits agree that the Marina was torpedoed without warning; that the first torpedo struck the starboard side; the second hit the vessel twelve minutes later and was followed by a boiler explosion. The steamer sank six minutes afterwards.

No Americans were killed by the boiler explosion. Those who lost their lives were drowned as life-boats were being lowered.

According to this information a sub-

Washington, Nov. 1.—The Soo Line & the Erie companies were the only ones to submit a direct proposal for the construction of one of the early cross-surface as a part of the 1917 building program. The limit of cost for the ship was fixed at $1,000,000. The Soo Line company proposed to construct one ship within three days at $1,000,000.
